

THE HISTORY of MJ PETERSON

BEGINNING WITH A VISION...

Four generations of the Peterson family have produced successful results for our clients in the real estate marketplace. MJ Peterson's corporate values continue to focus on the principles of integrity and professionalism.

Following the stock market crash of the late 1920's, Marvin John Peterson came to Buffalo from Detroit in search of new opportunities. Marvin Peterson had a vision: To build strong neighborhoods based on family values.

Today - more than 80 years later - at MJ Peterson, we are still grounded in those principles. Since our inception, we have been involved in a broad range of projects beginning with the development of some of Buffalo's oldest neighborhoods; adding starter-home projects in Tonawanda and Amherst following World War II; contributing to moderate and low-income HUD-sponsored housing developments; and construction of luxury condominiums.

MJ Peterson is an established full-service real estate organization specializing in:

- Listing and selling
- Rentals and leasing
- Commercial sales and leasing
- New home construction
- Property management
- Commercial and residential land development
- Domestic and international relocation
- Lease option and trade-in programs
- Property appraisals
- Mortgage placement
